

DODGE® Inserts

Compression Limiters (made to order)

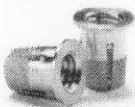

Non-threaded bushing to take bolt load
Eliminates damage due to tightening of bolt
Custom designed for your application to provide optimum protection of part.

Can be installed with heat or by pressing in

Standard Expansion

Press-in installation, no heat required

Captive disk to lock insert in place

Both plain & with flange

Clinch type with projection that can be swaged over electrical terminal

Self Threading

Insert cuts it's own thread for installation with slot at bottom of insert similar to tap

Can be installed by hand or with tapping head

Spred-Lok

Press-in installation, no heat required
screw

Both plain & with Flange